

THE MANAWATU
JOURNAL OF HISTORY

— — — — —
2009 ISSUE NO. 5

ISSUE FIVE

MANAWATU JOURNAL OF HISTORY

—  —
ISSUE FIVE, 2009

This journal will be published in August 2009.

The Manawatu Journal of History is published annually. It is an initiative of the Palmerston North Heritage Trust and is published in conjunction with the Manawatu Branch of the New Zealand Historic Places Trust.

Contents include articles on aspects of the rich history of events, people and places in the Manawatu area, encompassing Palmerston North, Feilding, Halcombe, Foxton, Sanson, Rongotea, Kimbolton and surrounding districts.

Editorial committee: Cushla Scrivens (editor), Lucy Marsden, Garry O'Neill, Margaret Tate, James Watson, Noelene Wevell, Betty Williamson.

Highlights from the fifth issue: Charles Hertz, Museum Curator; Olga Monrad; "Spending a Penny" in Palmerston North and Feilding; the Revival of a Post Office; Ivan Mandahl, photographer; the Palmerston North Choral Society; the Palmerston North Squash Club; Researching the History of a House.

PRICE PER COPY $25

MANAWATU JOURNAL OF HISTORY

—  —
SUBSCRIPTION

Yes, I/We want to receive the Manawatu Journal of History, Issue Five, 2009.

Name.....

Address

..... Postal Code.....

Email address.....

Number of copies required.....

Cheque enclosed ($25 per copy)

Please make cheques payable to:
Manawatu Historic Journal Associates

To subscribe return this slip to:
Garry O'Neill
Treasurer
Manawatu Historic Journal Associates
PO Box 1702
Palmerston North 4440.

We have a limited number of copies of Issues One, Three and Four for sale. To obtain a copy please send a cheque for $20 to the above address. Please include the number of the journal and your return address.

TEAR HERE